Andrew Turner - Conservative Candidate for the Isle of Wight

18th April 2005

Tories unveil Election Websites

Island Conservatives have unveiled two election websites which, they say, are far in advance of those of any other Island party.

The website for Andrew Turner, who is seeking re-election as the Island's Member of Parliament, is entitled www.KeepAndrew.com, and that for the Conservative candidates for the Isle of Wight Council is www.IslandConservatives.com.

Andrew Turner said,

“More and more electors are using the internet to obtain information, not only about national and international issues but also about Island issues on, for example, local media websites. It is only courteous to let people have information in a format which they are used to handling, and that is what we have tried to do.”

Cllr Andy Sutton, Leader of Conservatives on the IW Council, added,

“Conservatives are the most e-enabled party in this election. The Island Conservatives website contains full details of the manifesto on which we are standing and the timetable for action which we will implement if elected on 5th May to run the Council, as well as information about all our local candidates. Voters can also, of course, contact us by email to find out more about our policies or to offer help for our campaign.”
